CURRENT RULE

Organizing Authority

- The Organizing Authority for the World Championship shall be the IM24CA in conjunction with the Host Club/Organization and the respective National Melges 24 Class Association.
- The Host Club/Organization shall manage the Championship within the bounds of the rules as set out in the Standard Agreement contract.
- Any financial gain or loss as a result of hosting the Championship shall be the sole responsibility of the Host Club/Organization.

PROPOSED RULE

Organizing Authority

- As per RRS 89.1 the Organizing Authority for the World Championship shall be the relevant MNA of World Sailing which delegates an affiliated Club/Organization. The Club/Organization will host the event in conjunction with the respective Melges24 National Class Association under the control of IM24CA.
- The Host Club/Organization shall manage the Championship within the bounds of the rules as set out in the Standard Agreement contract.
- Any financial gain or loss as a result of hosting the Championship shall be the sole responsibility of the Host Club/Organization.

Reason

The previous definition was clearly not correct, far from what the rules require and not reflecting what we need in the real world.
